

SPRINGLIGHT

Monday, February 04, 2019

A Weekly newspaper by the PG Dept of Journalism & Mass Communication, St Joseph's Evening College (Autonomous), Bengaluru| Vol:2| Issue 4

SJEC CELEBRATES TAMIL LANGUAGE

By Immanuel Rakesh

Photo Credits: Vimala

Photo Credits: Immanuel

The Department of Tamil at St. Joseph's Evening College organised an intercollegiate Tamil Fest on February 2 and 3 to honour and to pay respect to Tamil literature and culture. The chief guest for the day was R Vinod, Chief Editor, The Hindu Tamil newspaper.

Students from different colleges such as St. Aloysius College, St. Anne's women Degree College, St. Joseph's art and science women, Hosur, St. Joseph College autonomous, Bangalore, Indian institute of Psychology and research college, Maharani Women College, and Mount Carmel College, participated in the fest. This fest occurs every two years where major colleges in Bangalore turn up here and celebrate the Tamil culture with various cultural events such as solo/group singing, solo/group dance. Off stage events included nine stones, walking on the bricks, poetry, short story, and essay writing.

The main aim of this bi-yearly fest is to showcase the culture and talent of the students and to promote unity among them. Students from different colleges were pleased to participate and flaunt their talent. "I am overwhelmed. It was a great opportunity to meet other students who support and contribute the development of culture and talent," said Vimala, a III B Com student and the President of the Tamil Department at SJEC "This is an event that brings all colleges together and brings out Tamil as not just a language, but an emotion, a feeling that we are all there to take the culture forward," She added.

Teaching Faculty attend Workshop at St. Joseph's College of Law

By Indumathi S

tion of India: The Letter, the Spirit and the Law at St. Joseph's College of Law on January 30, 2019.

The chief guest of the workshop was the Advocate General of Karnataka, Mr. Uday Holla who stressed the importance of Constitution in the current political scenario. "Today the nation is divided. We are at crossroads. At this juncture, Constitution has great value," said Mr. Holla.

Prof. Babu Mathew from NLSIU, one of the resource persons at the workshop said that there is hardly any other subject of greater importance at this time than Constitution.

Five teachers of St. Joseph's Evening College participated in a Workshop, 'Teaching and Learning the Constitu-

PHOTO CAPTION

The Hindi Parishad inaugurates the fest, Sangam on February 2. The events of the fest will commence from February 16

St. Joseph's Evening College
(Autonomous & Re-accredited by NAAC)
No.35, Museum Road, Bengaluru - 560025

NATIONAL SEMINAR
ON
"ADMINISTRATIVE REFORMS AND GOOD GOVERNANCE"
Call for Papers

Organised by : Department of Humanities
Date : 2nd March, 2019
Venue : Faber Hall, Sports Complex, St. Joseph's Boys' High School.

Keynote Address by Dr. Jeevan Kumar
He is an academican with more than 38 years of teaching experience in Political Science at Bangalore University. Dr. Kumar is currently Hon. Professor at the Karnataka State Rural Development and Panchayat Raj University, Gadag; and Consultant to the Karnataka Regional Branch of the Indian Institute of Public Administration.

Valedictory Address by Dr. S.R. Keshava
He is Professor of Economics in the PG Department of Economics, Bangalore University. He has made his niche as good teacher, academican, researcher and economist. Dr. Keshava is also the author of nine books. He has worked as Chairman, Member, Reviewer, Subject Expert and invitee of various committees including selection committees of different Universities and State Government bodies. He also has made a mark as panellist on various television channels to discuss on economic issues.

EDITORIAL BOARD

Reporters : Immanuel Rakesh, Indumathi S
Staff Editor : Ms. Indumathi S

Design

Immanuel Rakesh T